

AFT LOCAL 1839 CONSTITUTION

Preamble:

We, the members of the New Jersey City University Professionals, American Federation of Teachers Local 1839, have joined together to ensure participation in decision making at NJCU and to promote the professional and economic satisfaction of the members and the advancement of education, by means of our cooperative action and affiliation with the AFT.

Article I. Name:

This organization shall be known as the New Jersey City University Professionals, (DBA American Federation of Teachers – Local 1839).

Article II. Objectives:

This Local, as a union of professionals, unites members in a federation for mutual assistance in order to:

1. Promote and protect an atmosphere and structure of academic freedom for members and students in the pursuit of education, scholarship and service.
2. Provide the best possible conditions for teaching, learning, research and service. These conditions include, but are not limited to, workloads, salaries, fringe benefits, and other relevant factors.
3. Promote and protect job security for all members of the bargaining unit.
4. Provide and protect against arbitrary actions and ensure due process.
5. Promote maximum participation in union & university communities by unit members.
6. Promote the excellence of New Jersey City University and its service to the urban mission.
7. Promote the interests of unit members, the teaching profession, and public higher education in general.
8. Embody these objectives in a workable statewide agreement between the State of NJ and the Council of NJ State College Locals, and through local agreements between New Jersey City University and Local 1839.
9. Eliminate inequality in education in all its forms.

10. Cooperate with organized labor and to promote policies and procedures consistent with the aims of organized labor.

Article III. Membership:

1. All members of the university faculty/professional staff bargaining unit and the adjunct faculty bargaining unit as defined by PERC are eligible for membership if employed at New Jersey City University. Included are faculty, librarians, professional staff, and adjuncts faculty at New Jersey City University and the A. Harry Moore School. Those designated as managerial personnel are excluded.
